CALENDAR

A RESOLUTION

Expressing deepest sorrow, sympathy and condolences to the family, relatives, and friends of the late Grandmaster Navigator Rhaepinwoag Sesario Sewralur for his untimely passing.

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur passed away at the Shin Kong Wu Ho-Su Memorial Hospital, Taipei, Taiwan on July 10, 2026 – one day before his 57th birthday; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur was born on Satawal Island, Yap State, Federated States of Micronesia, on July 11, 1969 to his renowned father, the Great Grand Master Navigator "Mwiurh Alaw" Mau Pialug and mother Catherina Lemwaeito, into a family with ten brothers and six sisters; and

WHEREAS, as a public servant, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur served in the Yap State Division of State Public Safety as a Sergeant from December 4, 2000 – May 24, 2007, and while serving in this public office, Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur engaged himself in the creation and establishment of the Traditional Navigation Society (TNS) of Yap; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag"

Sesario Sewralur, a very humble and well respected son of Satawal Island, Yap State, had devoted his life to the preservation, practice, teaching, and advancement of the sacred art of traditional Pacific oceanic navigation, serving as an esteemed cultural leader and mentor to countless navigators and students throughout Yap, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of Palau, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, Hawai'i, other Pacific Islands, and Institutions around the world; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur, through his exceptional knowledge of the stars, winds, ocean swells, currents, and traditional wayfinding, he safeguarded an invaluable cultural heritage that has been passed down through generations and inspired renewed appreciation for indigenous navigation across the Pacific; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur, as a student under the mentorship of his Papa Mau, had sailed a lot of voyages on Satawal sailing canoes in many sea lanes within proximity to Satawal and between Yap and Palau, as well as many other sea lanes "metaw" from Hawaii to the islands north and south of the equator on the Hawaiian double hull sailing canoes; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur, sailed on the "E Mau – Sailing the Master Home", a historic 1999 voyage where the Hawaiian voyaging double-hulled canoe Makaliʻi sailed from Hawaii to Satawal in Micronesia, and he also sailed on another historic voyage on the traditional double-hulled canoe "Alingano Maisu" from Hawaii to Micronesia, from January 23 to April 7, 2007, which was known as the Kū Holo Mau (Sail On, Sail Always, Sail Forever) voyage, including the accompanying Hōkūleʻa, a tribute canoe to legendary Great Grandmaster Navigator "Mwiurh" Mau Piailug; and

WHEREAS, Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur, with his inheritance of the Alingano Maisu moved to Palau and operated under the sponsorship program of the Palau Community College and the Micronesian Voyaging Society, where he became known as a true leader and custodian of the art of traditional wayfinding and caretaker of the ocean and; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur, voyaged to Taiwan twice, the most recent was to Taiwan and Okinawa, from Okinawa to Guam, during which he executed a difficult and rare maneuvering aspect of "Ruwelmetaw" called "mwirmetaw" to change course and destination to Yap due to super typhoon Sinlaku approaching their way, and the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur again executed another "mwirmetaw" to change course and destination to Palau due to remnant of Typhoon Sinlaku blocking their approach to Yap, and after successfully completing maneuvers, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur arrived to Palau safely, but unfortunately could not attend the "Aetaeri" – voyage closing ceremony as he became ill, was hospitalized and finally later referred to Taiwan; and

WHEREAS, the late Grandmaster Navigator "Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur, with a multitude of his achievements have consistently been characterized by enthusiasm, dedication, and unwavering commitment and perseverance with his unquantifiable service and contributions to the State of Yap, and he exemplified wisdom, humility, dedication to his community, earning great respect and admiration of the traditional leaders, government officials, educators, and people throughout Yap State and he was known to many people of Yap State as a man who carried himself with a humble status, gentle smile, and with humility that never changed regardless of where his voyages carried him, and whose greatest joy came from teaching others rather than being praised; and

WHEREAS, the passing of Grand - Master Navigator

"Rhaepinwoag" Sesario Sewralur is a profound loss to his family, his community, the traditional navigation community, the State of Yap, the Federated States of Micronesia, and all who value the preservation of Pacific cultural traditions and who value the ocean and the Pacific Islands as One People, One Ocean, One Canoe; now, therefore,
